Dear Fred,

Introduction to Counselling Psychology Course: 4-6 September 2006

Thank you for your vibrant course on "Introduction to Counselling Psychology" from 4-6 September 2006 where I was among the fortunate participants. You have given me a wonderful introduction to this field.

To me, psychology has been a mysterious subject. Attending your course has partially lifted that mysterious veil. I thoroughly enjoyed those 3 days and I now understand why some people behave the way they do.

Besides Siak Weng Wah who attended the 4-6 September 2006 course with me, 5 of my colleagues (Joshua Tan Seng Huat, Jocelyn Kan Yim Kuan, Tan Lai Poh, Low Guan Seng and Joyce Ong Yean Koon) have completed this course on a part-time basis in August 2006. We are planning for our remaining colleague, Koo Mun Thiam, to join your full-time course early next year. By mid-2007, our Institute will achieve a 100% attendance on your Introduction to Counselling Psychology Course.

I feel this introductory course benefits every employee regardless of his/her position in an organisation. As long as we need to interact with people, we need to understand how people think. Your course helps a lot in shaping this understanding.

Thank you once again for your excellent delivery of the stimulating contents of this course. I remember every enjoyable moment of it. Please also convey my appreciation to your staff who, in one way or another, provided the clockwork support to this successful course.

Yours truly,

Leo Tin Boon
Senior Manager (Administration)
